

2006 FLEUR de VEEDER

78 12-bottle 750 ml cases produced
60 12-bottle 375 ml cases produced
20 Magnum 6-bottle cases produced
100% Merlot
14.6 % alcohol

Tasting Notes: This opaque and dark purple Merlot leads into expressions of high dark toned fruit, spicy cayenne pepper, and fresh cranberries with hints of coco, cherry, and anise. Pleasing scents of wet rock stones, minerals, and damp soil expresses the true mountain terroir. The great weight and structure with notes of cranberry and raspberry interact brilliantly with a long finish.

2005 ALDEN PERRY RESERVE

168 12-bottle cases produced
55% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Franc, 20% Cabernet Sauvignon
Bottled in May 2007
14.5 % alcohol

Tasting Notes: Blue core with a red rim in color. Big high tone aromatics of licorice, sassafras and allspice, with a hint of white pepper. On the palate beautiful flavors of black cherry, Bing cherry and anise on the entry are complemented by a suggestion of clove, cinnamon and ginger which carries long into the finish. The broad flavors with rich berry fruitiness and stone fruit, give the impression at times of apricot nectar and at times blackberry jam.

2005 CABERNET SAUVIGNON

140 12-bottle 750 ml cases produced
55 12-bottle 375 ml cases produced
19 Magnum 6-bottle cases produced
100% Cabernet Sauvignon
14.5% alcohol

Tasting Notes: Almost opaque with a dark purple core to an alluring red cherry edge. This wine is extremely dark in color, but when swirled it appears very red...it shows lots of extraction. The nose is all smokiness and spice entwined with big rich fruits of Bing cherry and nectarine. The palate is rich, lush classic Mt. Veeder Cabernet with red and black fruits, and lots of spice of sassafras and white pepper. The wine is loaded with beautiful cherry and stone fruit with hints of kiwi, star fruit, allspice and nutmeg that just keeps going long through the arc of the long, long finish.

2006 CHEVAL

96 12-bottle 750 ml cases produced
39 12-bottle 375 ml cases produced
100% Cabernet Franc
14.7% alcohol

Tasting Notes: Brilliantly ruby in color. This wine's rich aromas of ginger, anise and cinnamon are unique to this varietal. Rich and supple with soil flavors classic to the terrior of Mount Veeder. The flavors are concentrated and focused. Vibrant fruit is reminiscent of ripe plums, blackberries, black cherries with hints of cedar, exotic spices, and vanilla. The tannins and layers of fruit are harmonious offering a velvety mount feel. This wine has a smooth entry that last into the finish.